

Class Diagram

This class diagram shows the class and all its sublevels and how the tables connect the person is the main table and all the other tables connect to it the table to the right shows the persons information, the student table shows the persons student number and Average mark, or the person could be a student it shows the different things a person can be in regards to schooling.